

Each student is expected to respect the rights and privileges of other students, teachers, and Life School staff. All teachers, administrators, and other Life School personnel are expected to respect the rights and privileges of students.

Sec. 1. STUDENT HANDBOOK

The Superintendent or designer shall develop student handbooks with information on curriculum, grading, extracurricular activities, and other such topics that students and parents are likely to need during the school year. The Superintendent or designee shall ensure that no student handbook information is in conflict with policy or the Student Code of Conduct. In case of conflict between a Board policy or the Student Code of Conduct and provisions of student handbooks, the provision that was most recently adopted by the Board of Directors will control.

Sec. 2. DISTRIBUTION

Student handbooks shall be made available on the Life School website at the beginning of the school year; hard copies shall be provided upon request. Amendments to the Student Handbook shall be communicated promptly to students and parents.
