Parents/Guardians,

We hope you all have had a peaceful and relaxing summer so far. Our 2020-2021 school year is just around the corner and we can't wait! With things still constantly changing we are doing our best to keep you informed with every decision through email, social media and our school website. We are hoping to have more definite answers next week so we can all begin to prepare appropriately for the upcoming year! If you have not already filled out the parent survey to choose face to face classes or remote learning, please Click Here to log into SchoolMint and complete it by Wed. July 22nd. Whatever the '20-'21 school year has in store for us, we are in this together and will all face it head on.
